Sea Festival to be best yet

Last minute preparations made as Society geared for two-day show

White Rock Sea Festival Society is holding last-minute meetings this week in preparation for the two-day show which opens 9 a.m. Friday and continues until midnight Saturday.

Program highlights include bird house competition, kiddies parade, monster float parade, spectacular fireworks, band concerts, dances, three-program coupon draws, motorcycle drag races, swimming races, diving competitions, water skiing, sand castle contest, kiddies contests, speed boat races, bike race, skin diving display and the appearance of the Bluebird Majorettes of Victoria.

Bingo will be staged each night by White Rock Lions Club.

Location of the chicken barbecue has been changed from the Hope property to the Great Northern Station compound.

A Festival meal has been provided by Mrs. Ruth Johnston and her assistants who took on the job of sewing together all the pennant strips that have now been put up on White Rock streets.

On hand for the parade Saturday will be Delta M.A.'s Dr. Gordon Gibson and Vincent Massey as well as Mayor Will Ham Hodgson and members of city council.

Out of town floats will include Newton P.T.A. which will carry the Newton Day Queen, and Blaine Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the Bluebird Majorettes, members of a New Westminster baton corps will also participate.

Bands from Langley, Haney and White Rock will enter and Miss White Rock, who will be chosen Friday night, and her attendants, will ride on a float. Diane Thrift, Queen of the Sea, will ride in a convertible.

Terry Rea (left) and Don Finlayson of Royal City Motorcycle Club will be two of the participants competing in the motorcycle races on the beach Saturday morning. This attraction will be one of the features of the Sea Festival Pursuit races, drag races and T-T races which include jumping will be part of the performance.

Solution to G.N. railway dangers sent to council

A solution to the safety problem faced by beach-goers who cross the Great Northern railway tracks has been sent to city council by J. Saxon Sledding of Coquitlam.

Council will forward the suggestions to the Great Northern Railway Company.

Mr. Sledding referred to the tragic deaths on the tracks and expressed his surprise that council have not insisted upon the Great Northern installing crossing gates controlled from the depot.

Mr. Sledding enclosed a self-explanatory drawing which he feels will provide a complete solution to the problem.

The sketch includes the following solutions: Eliminating the tracks and dangerous crossings, taking the artery of commerce off the main front street, providing a very fine promenade without removing the protection from the ocean's high tides; the whole aspect of the main street, Washington Ave., will be enhanced a hundred fold, and become a delight to the eye with a mile of rockeries and green banks; improvement of the beach by a deeper sand fill to the very top of the promenade, or within 12' of the top (thus forming a seat along the edge).

Ald. Max Zeck felt the drawing called for the removal of the railway tracks which he heartily disapproved of.

Ald. Jessie Lee felt that there was "food for thought" in Mr. Sledding's suggestions and the drawings represented a lot of hard work. She recommended that a copy be sent to the Great Northern Railway Company.

Galt Wilson UGN divisional chairman

White Rock lawyer Galt Wilson has been appointed divisional chairman for the United Good Neighbors Fund for White Rock and South Surrey.

Mr. Wilson replaces Alex Davidson, who served as chairman for the last UGN drive.

Farm team wins first playoff game

Two home runs by Roy Bush plus an excellent pitching performance by Ricky Hill gave White Rock's Little League farm team a 13-10 win over Cloverdale in the first game of the best-of-three playoff series.

Wilf Hurd's boys travelled to Cloverdale Wednesday night for the second game. Third game, if necessary, will be played Monday at Semiahmoo Park at 6:30 p.m.

The farm team travelled to Vancouver last week to watch the Mounties in action.

No jumping without 'shute'

Parachute jumping will not be part of this year's Sea Festival as had earlier been planned.

The Society had received offers from two Vancouver air clubs for a display of parachute jumping but the Federal Department of Transport has turned thumbs down on the proposal.

The Department had refused permission for the jumping as White Rock is situated in an air route.

The Society then wired W. A. McLennan, M.P. for this riding, who contacted the Department personally.

McLennan wired back and said the Department will grant permission for the show "with the exception of the parachute jumping."

Sea Festival officials felt the wire "didn't make much sense" and said as they didn't expect the jumpers to jump from a plane without a parachute the idea would have to be dropped.

Entries sought for Zack Swim

Entries are now being sought for the Max Zeck long distance swim to be held Friday at 3 p.m.

Winner will be awarded the Max Zeck Trophy.

Starting point will be approximately 400 yards west of Coldcut and will finish under the pier. This is not the Coldcut Swim, officials point out.

Swimmers must provide their own boats and entrants must register by Friday noon. Swimmers may register at the Beach Book Store on Washington Avenue.

This is a free style swim open to all juniors under 16 years who reside permanently in this area.

Area designated is White Rock, Crescent and Elgin and includes the King George Highway to Campbell River Road.

Magistrate warns against 'bad water manners' here

A stern warning against operating small craft in a dangerous manner in the White Rock area was issued to boat owners by Magistrate Stuart H. Gilmour in city police court Tuesday.

Magistrate Gilmour fined Robert Lewis Milroy of 184 Bennett Street, New Westminster, $35 and $2 costs after the youth pleaded guilty to a charge of "operating a vessel in a manner that is dangerous to navigation, life and limb" contrary to section 74 of the Small Vessel Regulations.

Milroy admitted to navigating a boat with a skier in tow in a dangerous manner in the vicinity of the Semiahmoo Cabins on July 9.

The boat Milroy was operating cut between a diving ramp and the high water mark, narrowly missing a swimmer. A complaint was lodged and the RCMP laid a charge.

Magistrate Gilmour warned he would not deal with such matters so lightly in the future.

First Class Scouts John Keenlyside (left) and John Montgomery will represent South Surrey at the Garden Party in honor of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip to be held in Victoria this week.

These two grade 11 students of Lord Tweedsmuir High School, Cloverdale, will be among the 50 B.C. Scouts to be reviewed by the Royal couple. Both boys are members of the First Hazelmore Troop.

1,000 invited guests see Queen open Deas Tunnel

One thousand invited guests were on hand Wednesday as Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth officially opened Deas Island Tunnel.

Escorted by red-coated members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, blue-uniformed guards, and RCAF Training Command Edmonton Band, the Queen and Prince Philip took their seats among high ranking members of the provincial cabinet.

The ceremony opened at 10:30 a.m. and lasted until 11:35 a.m.

The Queen appeared briefly to cut the ribbon stretching across the highway near the tunnel entrance.

Highways Minister P. A. Gagliardi, acting as master of ceremonies, was in a gay, joking mood and the crowds lining the highway and in seats reserved for the invited guests, took up his spirit.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett was on hand and speeches were made by Gagliardi, Peter Klewin, Deas Island Tunnel Contractors and Engineers, and other Tunnel construction officials, prior to the Royal Party's appearance.

Among the White Rock guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Irwin, who were asked to stand when the introductions were being made, Junior Chamber of Commerce president John Atkinson and Mrs. Atkinson and Nestor Iwosky, publisher of White Rock Sun and Mrs. Iwosky.

City Hospital receives grant

White Rock District Hospital has received a grant of $380 for one-third equipment or renovation costs to the hospital.

The announcement was made July 10 by Health Minister Eric Martin.

White Rock is one of 22 B.C. hospitals that have been authorized by the provincial government to receive over $317,000.

Four grants-in-aid totalling $271,638.01 represent payment toward major hospital construction projects of which the provincial government pays 50 percent of the approved costs. The remaining grants of $45,447 constitute one-third the cost of equipment and renovations.

Lougheed's closes doors, $30,000 in stock on sale

Failure of the landlord to renew her lease has forced Mrs. Doris Lougheed of Lougheed's Dry Goods on Hilltop to put her entire stock on sale at bargain prices and close her doors.

Mrs. Lougheed, who came to White Rock eight years ago to open her drygoods business, will put her entire stock, valued at $30,000 on sale starting Friday, July 17.

Mrs. Lougheed reports the landlord refuses to renew her lease because another merchant needed more room and her store was rented to him without her knowledge.

"This forces us to dispose of our huge stock for what it will bring at public sale - and accept our losses - simply because there is nowhere else to go," she said.

Mrs. Lougheed says she has no definite plans for the future.

"I am very unsettled at the present time and I can't say yet whether I will be going into business again."

She intends to continue residing in White Rock.

Mrs. Lougheed came to White

Rock from Cloverdale where she operated a poultry farm and hatchery for 14 years.

She has four daughters, Mrs. V. Lenihan of Whalley; Audrie, a registered nurse in Halifax; Mrs. Virginia Cameron, also a nurse, who resides at Whalley; and Joan, who assisted her mother in the store for three years and now operates a beauty salon in White Rock.

Discussing last-minute details of the 1959 White Rock Sea Festival are these two hard working society members Stan Evans (right) president of the year's Sea Festival and Ian Donald, chairman of the Miss White Rock Contest, are going over final arrangements for the two-day show.

Women's Institute hears history of Peace Arch

The annual international picnic of the Lower Mainland Women's Institute and Whatcom Home Demonstrators was held on Friday, July 10 at the American side when 200 members were in attendance. The American ladies were hostesses.

The picnic marked the 12th annual gathering of the groups held at the Peace Arch.

The program got underway at 12:30. Welcome was extended to the Canadian visitors by the County president, Mrs. Hickey.

The group was honored to have the Washington State president, Mrs. Hazel Engeland of Olympia at the gathering. The charming and very observant lady held her audience in interest as she took them back through the pages of history.

She spoke about the edifice, the Peace Arch and all present learned many interesting things and were amazed to hear of its historical background, which goes back 300 years to the 1st Mayflower.

The speaker reported that a piece of the beam of the sturdy ship and the only piece of wood at all to be taken from it as it was zealously guarded by the Quakers in England where it broke up after going aground on its return trip from America.

The piece of wood lies in an old chest which also has quite a history and lies in the structure of our famous Peace Arch Mrs. Engeland said.

Following the address, the flags of each country and the United Nations were raised which led the procession through the Arch where all joined in the singing of the anthems and prayers for peace were given by Mrs. Julia Mulligan of Langley Prairie.

The wedding will take place in White Rock on Saturday, August 22, 1959. Time and place will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Peckover also announce the engagement of their daughter Shirley Eileen to Mr. Frank Donald Benner, son of Mrs. Hilda Benner and the late Mr. E. J. Benner of Orillia, Ontario.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, August 8 at 7 p.m. in the Evangelical Free Church White Rock. The Rev. H. J. Westman officiating.

John Shaw engaged to Wisconsin girl
Mrs. Fredric Hartel of Manitowish, Wisconsin, announces the engagement of her daughter, Geraldine Anne Skarvan, to John Gordon Shaw, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Shaw of White Rock.

The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Miss Skarvan was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in June of this year and Mr. Shaw was a member of the 1956 graduating class of the UBC and is at present completing his studies for the degree of Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin.

After the wedding the couple will reside in Ottawa, Ontario, where Mr. Shaw has accepted a position with the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Service stars presented to girls who will be leaving the Pack at the beginning of September went to Judy Wright, three year term and Carol Barge, one year term.

A delightful potluck luncheon was enjoyed by all.

14 youngsters swim tank for first time

Those attaining the achievement were Richard Coulson, Myrna Olafson, David Charlton, David Fadden, Riddy Vance, Bobby Bentley, Adele Christianso, Judy Pravit, Jill Wits, Lynn Foxham, Robin Logan, Susan Benton, Jamie Fraser and Lucille Laach.

"Jeff" Mortimer and family of 5th Avenue Pharmacy, Prince George, are spending their annual vacation at the Legion Camp at Peace Arch Park.

Miss Frances Phillips left Saturday for a two week vacation to Edmonton.

Rev. A. L. Elliott has as guests his son and daughter in law, and their family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Elliott of Winnipeg. They arrived Monday by air.

A Pack Wolf Cubs enjoy week's holiday

Thunder and lightning together with a strong wind whipping the canvas of their tents failed to daunt the Wolf Cubs of the White Rock A Pack last week on their annual camping expedition. Sunny days throughout the week-long pack holiday were ideal for treasure hunts, nature hikes and swimming parties.

Located far along the Campbell River on the property of Mr. H. Keenlyside was ideal for pack training and many miles of cow paths along the river were filled with adventure at every turn.

Twenty Cubs under the leadership of Ken Whipple, Cub Master, Bill Ballard, assistant Cub master and Scout Instructor Peter Conbar, together with an excellent cook, Mrs. Bill Ballard, were in charge of the camping expedition which ended Thursday.

Garbage containers for city free of cost

Council has voted hearty approval to a request by Mr. E. Murphy of Abbotsford that he place garbage disposal containers throughout the city at no cost to White Rock.

Urgency was the keynote of each council member. With Mr. Murphy given permission to install the containers at the earliest possible convenience.

Mr. Murphy, who finances the containers through local and outside advertising, displayed one of the attractive containers in the council chambers.

They are of 22 gauge steel with a galvanized insert and baked on enamel exterior aid are bolted to the sidewalk, and are treated with a rust-preservative.

As part of his service Mr. Murphy's employees will empty the containers every five days, wash, man and re-touch them if needed.

Public reception from the installation of these containers is likely to be Mr. Murphy stated.

He does not include liquor or tobacco advertising on his containers and will not engage in a breach of ethics by allowing a container advertising a certain product to be placed outside the premises of a competitive merchant.

Mayor William Hodgson expressed displeasure at the fact that old steel barrels placed along the main street now are filled with merchants' debris rather than that of residents and beach-goers.

Ald. Lee expressed the opinion that emptying the containers once every five days would not be sufficient whereupon Mr. Murphy pointed out that they scrutinize each situation and where more frequent emptying seems necessary they make provision for that. Some containers in New Westminster are emptied every three days, he pointed out.

Council moved that Mr. Murphy confer with Mayor Hodgson, city clerk John L. Jones and Bob Howe, works superintendent, upon determining how many containers would be required and what locations warranted their installation.

Warning to Boat Operators

Owners of small boats should not treat lightly the warning by Magistrate S. H. Gilmour that he will deal harshly in the future with people who endanger the lives of others by their careless habits on the water.

As the magistrate pointed out in court Tuesday a maximum fine of $500 or six months' imprisonment can be imposed on people who do not recognize the importance of safety at sea.

The majority of violations to the "Small Vessel Regulations Act," can be put down to ignorance on the part of the boat operator, but ignorance of this country's water laws will not be accepted as a legitimate excuse just as ignorance of our highway laws by the owner of a motor vehicle would not be accepted in court.

Everyone who swims, water skis, or operates a small craft should be familiar with every phase of water safety. In an effort to cut down the ever-increasing number of drownings in Canada the Department of Transport has printed a booklet "Safety Afloat" which offers excellent instruction on accident prevention to the boat owner.

These booklets are available free of charge from the local RCMP or the White Rock Sun.

Here are part of two sections of the Small Vessel Regulations which all boat owners should keep in mind at all times:

"Every person who navigates or operates any vessel or any water skis, surf board, water sled or other towed object on the inland, minor or other waters of Canada, in a manner that is dangerous to navigation, life or limb, having regard to all the circumstances including the nature and conditions of such waters and the use that at the time is or might reasonably be expected to be made of such waters, is guilty of an offence."

"Every person who, while his ability to operate a vessel is impaired by alcohol or a drug operates a vessel on any parts of the inland, minor or other waters of Canada is guilty of an offence."

Welcome, Sea Festival Visitors

The stage is set for White Rock's eighth annual Sea Festival and this year's Society takes this opportunity to extend a cordial welcome to both resident and tourist who plan on taking in the two days of entertainment.

The Sea Festival Society has put forth a great deal of time and effort during the past months in an effort to ensure two days of full activity with events planned to please the young and old alike.

The City of White Rock has joined with the Society in bringing friendly greetings to the visitors who will attend the Festival. The city hopes the visitors will not only enjoy the many fine features of the program but also the opportunities for healthful recreation and relaxation offered by this city by the sea.

We all echo the sentiments of the city in its wish that "White Rock hopes that you will visit us again with your family. Come and spend a holiday with us; perhaps a weekend, or better still, take up permanent residence here. Enjoy yourself at the Festival. The people of White Rock are privileged that you could visit us and join in the festivities."

Stay Alive!

The Fraternal Order of Police, which is conducting one of the most intensive summer-long safety campaigns in North America, has recommended these Four Summer Safety Driving Tips:

- (1) Keep off the gas! Excessive speed is the Number One road killer;
- (2) Don't take chances! Never pass unless you have an unobstructed view of the road ahead, be sure to stay a reasonable distance behind the car in front;
- (3) Beware of driving when weary! Stay alert with periodic coffee-breaks; and
- (4) Slow down at Sundown! Dusk is the most dangerous time of the day.

For those who want to stay alive, these tips are worth trying.

A Racket?

Strike after strike one hardly settled another begins. But this we know for certain, the public never wins. It can fume, and fuss, get mad, even swear by heck. Before the end it can depend for sure, it gets it in the neck. In years gone by employees, low wages had to take. While the big shots lived in luxury, profit on profit made. Of course there were exceptions, as are in every case. But in general rule what employees got, simply a disgrace. So times have changed, that point I'm sure you'll grant. Now the more the raise in wages it seems the more they want. Looking over years gone by, labor was well respected. Their leaders from the rank and file no duty neglected. What of the leaders today, are they in this racket? You'll hear it said emphatically, it's got now just a racket.

Water restrictions in effect till pump installed

Editor, White Rock Sun.

Dear Sir,

Attached is a letter to the Corporation of the City of White Rock from White Rock Water Works Company Ltd.

I found it necessary to impose sprinkling regulations on Sunday, June 28 in order to provide water for domestic use.

Since that time many residents are running their hoses without sprinkler heads, at night, when they cannot be detected, thereby preventing us building up our reserve supply.

I have been told by some residents that they intend to get as much water as possible before all the meters are installed. Do you consider this attitude a proper one?

These restrictions will remain in effect until a pump is installed in our new well. This pump was ordered on Friday, July 3 and delivery is expected in two weeks. The well and pump will cost approximately $25,000. When the pump is installed I will lift the sprinkling restrictions for so long as White Rock residents will play ball and not use their hoses indiscriminately.

Water installation is proceeding as rapidly as materials are available. Some 400 were installed in June.

I respectfully ask for the cooperation of all water users to conserve water until such time as the White Rock Water Works Company is in a position to supply as much as the water users are willing to pay for.

Yours sincerely,
L. Hough,
Manager.

Report from Parliament Hill

W. A. McLennan, M.P.

It has been decided to withhold until next session the portion of legislation to amend the Combines Act that is of a controversial nature and proceed only with those parts of the bill which relate to the problems of small business. British Columbia fishermen are to be protected. It will also be necessary to introduce a provision dealing with the fishing industry in British Columbia.

A statement of evidence has been submitted by the Director under the Combines Act to the Restrictive Trade Practices Commission inferring that certain agreements and activities relating to the supply of raw fish by the fishermen to the companies are illegal. As a result of the doubt the report has cast upon the legality of the agreements, the companies have declined to negotiate prices with the Fishermen's Union as they have done in the past and it appears a strike may result which could lead to the loss of this year's salmon pack.

There is a provision in the Anti-Combines Act to the effect that nothing therein shall be construed to apply to workmen or employees for their own reasonable protection as workmen or employees and our fishermen feel they come within the protection of this provision.

It is essential that everything possible must be done to keep peace in our great fishing industry.

It is, therefore, proposed to include a clause in the bill to the effect that the Anti-Combines legislation shall not apply to arrangements or agreements between fishermen and fishermen's associations in British Columbia and persons or companies engaged in buying and processing raw fish as it relates to the price of fish caught and supplied to the buyers between the first day of January, 1959 and December 31, 1960.

It is considered by that time a full study of the submission will have been made and a decision arrived at as to what, if any, further action should be taken to dispose finally of the situation. Canada's ten provinces, desirous of an improvement in their revenues from the tax field shared with the federal government were told to hold off for a few months. The federal Minister of Finance said that if conditions in the nation continued to improve, and the in-provement shows itself in a better federal financial position, something might be done to meet the provincial demands, possibly in the late fall.

The Minister of Justice, the Hon. Davie Fulton, deserves a good deal of credit for introducing a new definition of obscenity and getting the approval of the House of Commons.

This has never been an easy thing to do. The Courts have been laboring under an old definition, too difficult to understand or apply. The new definition says:

"Any publication, a dominant characteristic of which is the undue exploitation of sex, or of sex and any one or more of the following subjects, namely, crime, horror, cruelty and violence, shall be deemed to be obscene."

Even this definition may raise some difficulties but these difficulties can never be overcome entirely. Any criticism of the definition is that it might be applied to creative literature.

In such matters trust must be placed in the good judgment of the courts. Mr. Fulton has made a sincere attempt to deal with a serious problem. If the new definition is applied against those for which it is intended, and which it so well describes, it will win the gratitude of most Canadians.

Gas storage tank to facilitate trucks

A 500 gallon gas storage tank and accompanying pump will be installed at the city maintenance yard on Keil Street to facilitate city trucks.

Public Works committee members moved that such installation be made at a cost not exceeding $200.

Alderman Sid Fennell pointed out that the saving to the city per gallon would pay for the installation in a short time.

FLOWERS

How lovely is the rose - gracefully on her thorny stem. Fit for royal diadem - bouquet for a Queen! And lovely is the violet - half hid beneath a leaf - beautiful beyond belief - the scarcely seen! Mysteriously into being - the miracle of flowers, Blessing a few brief sunny hours ere they are blown, And on into Eternity the seeds are sown!

Walter Hickman, sailor and farmer, passes away

A friend has gone from our streets. We shall miss his cheery smile and words of greeting. The sea gulls will look in vain for him when they return with their young ones. Each morning they greeted him with shrieks of joy as he brought their breakfasts. His cribbage friends will miss him as he always lost or won with a smile. So long as everything was ship shape and Bristol fashion he was happy.

Walter Hickman was born at Red Hall, in the village of Borne in England. At an early age he trained on the Conway and entered the Merchant Marine.

He told many tales of his voyages to far off lands, his trips around Cape Horn and his stories of the albatross. On his first voyage he sailed with Bill Adams who has long been famous as a writer of sea yarns. If you ever read Ships and Women you would find that "Hickey" was your friend of White Rock. After the sailing ships came the prairies where he turned the furrows which brought him success as a farmer.

The Okanagan beckoned and to fruit farming he gave the same enthusiasm. Each time the west called and he retired to White Rock for 12 happy years. Walks on the pier, beside the sea he loved, talks on street corners with his friends or a game of cribbage made up his life and he was content.

Some day soon, when our quiet tears fall we will say a long farewell to our friend when his ashes are returned to his first love, the Sea.

Rain all the way to Houston in B.C.'s northland was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Spaetgens, North Bluff Road, who returned this week from a week long motor trip.

Letters to the Editor

Help Sea Festival

Editor, White Rock Sun.

Dear Sir,

Permit me through your valuable paper to thank the merchants and others of White Rock who have so generously given of their time, cash and valuable gifts to help make the 1959 Sea Festival the best yet.

Your Sea Festival committees under the able chairmanship of Stan Evans are working all most day and night to have everything ready for this big annual event. However this being the holiday season, many are away and the committee may be short of people to assist at the Sea Festival. You can help. Please contact Bill Nicol at the White Rock Sun, WI 8-2881 or at the Beach Book Shop Friday morning. Thank you again for your wonderful response.

Sincerely,

A. R. Reusch

In Regard to Subway

Editor, White Rock Sun.

Dear Sir,

It is by the paper July 9 that the council are wracking their brains as to how to make the subway available to so many invalidated people. Well in my opinion nobody need lose any sleep over it. With a small amount of cement put slanting inside the short side it would allow the water to run off after the tide turned.

With a nice plank sidewalk about three feet wide set on top of the water it would not hinder the water flowing away if stones on the bar side were removed. If necessary a few iron spikes could keep them out from coming in, blocking the shore entrance.

Please have mercy on the invalids and cripples who long for a walk in the sea water or sandy beach. It would not require another cement floor just a short raising on the shore end. It would not lessen the height of the ceiling.

I agree with the Works Superintendent about the groyne in fact if they were used a short way out they would prevent the stones and rocks from coming in and there would be more sand. According to some there is our entrance, to the beach with stone steps.

Permit me to say that people would have to walk a long way to get to them and then have to walk back, hard on invalids and crippled people.

A pioneer of White Rock from year of 1903.

SFU Sign Up

Editor, White Rock Sun.

Dear Sir,

At the district 13 Saskatchewan Farmers Union convention held on June 17, 1959, a resolution was passed asking our central office to send a circular letter to all "On to Ottawa" committees asking them to help organize a mass membership sign up in the SFU.

President Alfred P. Gleave speaking to the convention said Governments keep a very close watch on union membership and its rate of increase. From this it would appear that the union's ability to get results on behalf of its members is determined by how many farmers belong. We appeal to those people at the grass roots who organized, canvassed and got the 200,000 odd signers on the petition for deficiency payments. You have the "On to Ottawa Movement" still with you, keep it alive by putting it to work. Write in to Central Office, 222 Ave. B.N. Saskatoon and go ahead with a mass sign up in membership in the SFU. "In Union is Strength."

The Co-op's and the Pool are a very important and useful part of the farm movement, basically they are however interested with the commercial end of the business, profit making. On the other hand the organized farmers both Grain Growers Ass'n and Farmers Union, while they organized Co-ops and Pools, their main concern was and it with getting a fair deal from governments. They were and are concerned with political economy. Therefore policy making on behalf of the movement should be done by the SFU. Signed on behalf of the executive of Saskatchewan local SFU.

President, John Beckett, Secretary, Roy Reid.

At the Peace Arch

by Sylvia Walton

How unexpectedly the pleasant things can happen to one!

On the evening of July 5 I was taken to the International Peace Arch Portal to see number six of a program of films put on by The Surrey Film Council who are affiliated with The National Film Board of Canada.

It was a dull cold evening if you remember, and it was heart warming to see a great log fire burning in the "kitchen" fireplace, for an indoor picnic was in progress, and the smell of burning wood mingled delightfully with that of hot coffee and other good things. I wondered how all this was going to mix with a film show, but, Mr. Lilley - by whose invitation I was here - and Mr. Rose, who I learned is president of the Surrey Film Council, were quite happy about it. They and Mr. Summerton, another enthusiast, quietly went about setting up the equipment, and in a little while people had arranged themselves in rows, the buzz of conversation died down somewhat, a few of the windows were blacked out and the show got under way. I wouldn't have missed it for anything! The first film was called "Devil beneath the Sea", by Dupont of Canada, and we saw every phase of the Ripple Rock explosion - the world's greatest non-atomic explosion to date. Thrilling and awe inspiring are like warm words to apply to this epic piece of work. The next film was titled "Railroad Builders of the North," and showed us what is going on today in the vast wilderness which is Canada's back door, how the very contour of the land is being altered to make roads for the iron horse, so that the necessities of life may be brought to the new communities at the outposts of civilization, and to bring out the wealth which, with the magic of modern technique, they are prying from the very rocks.

The last film, "Nature's Miracle," was by the B.C. Electric and was something indeed! The damming of mighty rivers in the fierce wilderness of the British Columbian mountains, the building of power houses to harness the flood, the know-how which enables man, fragile and puny as he seems, to wave a wand so that in the humblest home, at the touch of a switch, there is light!

Truly food for thought...

SUNDAY, JULY 12, PEACE ARCH KITCHEN

As we entered at 6 o'clock a goodly company was gathered at the tables and the mixed aromas which greeted our nostrils were truly inviting and once more the fire of friendliness added warmth and that certain something to the scene.

We did not have long to wait before an "auditorium" was formed and children quitted as Mr. Lilley, with the help of Mr. Summerton and Mr. Cecil Hodgins - secretary of the Surrey Film Council - set up the equipment, blacked out the windows at the far end, and started the program.

Space does not permit me to indulge my enthusiasm, suffice it to say that each of the three films shown were so impressive in their sheer beauty and instructiveness, and of such high quality in their production, that I feel impelled to ask "Could not they be shown again later in the year, so that a larger public enjoy them?"

The titles were: "Atomic Energy in Canada", "National Film Board", "Date with B.C.", "BC Govt. Photographic Branch", and "Himalayan Tapestry". Shell Oil Company of Canada. This last was breath taking!

I shall certainly not miss the last two programs of the season, July 19 and 26 at the same location, and am surprised that a larger public does not attend.

THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1959 WHITE ROCK SUN

Unique method of growing strawberries in a private garden is demonstrated in this picture taken at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Reusch of Blackwood Road, White Rock. Mr. Reusch obtained a wooden barrel and drilled holes in it, planting the strawberry plants through the holes. Plants are put in the barrel as it is filled. This new method eliminates weeding, bird damage and watering, which is at a premium in White Rock, and allows for clean, fresh berries. The barrel can be made into an attractive ornament by planting a flower on top, such as a geranium as Mr. Reusch has done.

Fourth Term

Hastings again heads Crescent property owners

W. W. Hastings was elected president of the 250 member Crescent Beach Property Owners Association at the annual meeting held in Crescent Beach on Wednesday, July 8. It is the fourth successive year that Mr. Hastings has served as president.

Also elected were N. G. M. Lougheed, vice president, and Harry Smith, treasurer. Miss Ruby Normoyle will continue to act as secretary during the coming year.

In his address Mr. Hastings said that the Association had "no time for the luxury of quarrelling" and that "more could be done by co-operation than by any other way". He pointed out that in the coming year residents of the district would have their work cut out to prevent the industrialization of the Bay area and warned that the promoters of the scheme had not yet abandoned it.

During the election of officers James A. Smith took the chair and told the members that the Municipality of Surrey was one of the most difficult in the whole of B.C. to administer because Surrey faces a wider variety of problems than is normal.

These problems arise from the fact that Surrey has industry, waterfront, beaches, and residential districts and to add to the problem there is the factor of extremely rapid growth.

In other business the meeting was informed that the Municipal Council had approved in principle a long range plan of development for Crescent.

Misses Ruth and Betty Teeple have labored long over the many detailed problems connected with mapping out the beach into approximately 150 squares, divided into age groups, and divided again into suitable lanes to permit the participants to walk between the rows of creations.

Choosing judges is another problem the sisters must face annually as well as seeing that all participants receive the promised soft drink and treats.

The contributions they make to the Festival has lived long in the memory of hundreds of children who knelt on the sand under their supervision and formed castles fitting for the finest fairy story book.

Donations to be sought at Festival

Festival-goers this year will be given ample opportunity to express their appreciation in a tangible way.

They'll have a chance to make a donation to ensure that White Rock's Festival will continue and grow bigger and better annually.

For this purpose scores of community minded residents will be allocated to different areas through the beach area equipped with collection containers and the public will be invited to make a contribution.

Festival committee members appeal to both White Rock residents and visitors alike to give generously to this splendid cause. Dream of the committee is to see a swimming pool erected in White Rock from Sea Festival funds and possible seating on the west side of the pier, following the completion of the breakwater to ensure fine view when spectators view the many Festivals to come.

Beauty contestants guests at garden party

The lovely grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Johnson, 15790 Cliff Ave., was the scene of an afternoon tea Sunday, when the Miss White Rock contestants and their parents were entertained by Sea Festival Committee members. Each contestant was presented with a lovely corsage from the hostess.

Two-hour sailing race for Festival

A two hour sailing race for all sail boats up to 10 feet in length will be staged in conjunction with the Sea Festival on Saturday afternoon.

The popular event open to all sail boat owners will get underway from the pier early in the afternoon.

If enough boat owners of larger boats indicate their interest, a sail will be organized for them as well.

All interested participants are asked to contact Dennis Flawil of Crescent Beach, WI 8-8675 or Stan Evans, Sea Festival president at WI 8-9337.

Sturdi-Craft Boats to be feature at Festival; Sailing Shark raffle

Three sailing sharks, which will provide hours of fun for water-loving youngsters, have been donated to the White Rock Sea Festival by Sturdi-Craft Boats Ltd. of Vancouver.

Coupons for these "Sharks", valued at $12.95 can be obtained in the Sea Festival program, and will be drawn on Saturday night. Draw box is at the Silver Moon.

Sturdi-Craft will have a 14-foot Marauder Catamaran demonstrator in the water adjacent to the pier all day Saturday. "Yankee Clippers" runabouts will also be on display this Saturday.

Sturdi-Craft Boats Ltd. was instituted in 1955 with a 19 foot cabin cruiser designed by noted naval architect Thornton Grenfell.

Factory supervisor is Ernie Interieri whose father was well-known as a custom boat builder.

Sturdi-Craft constructed the 18 and 22 foot "Gull" line of cabin cruisers also designed by Thornton Grenfell. The company is now building the 14-foot Marauder Catamaran under franchise from the designers in California.

A 16 foot version of this craft will soon be constructed and next year Sturdi-Craft plans to build a Catamaran cabin cruiser.

The Company specializes in a variety of other models along with Scott Outboard Motors. Showroom is situated at 1790 West Georgia Street, in the heart of Vancouver's boating row.

'It pays to advertise' costs city man $30 fee

The well-worn phrase "it pays to advertise" proved wrong in the case of Fred B. Gillespie, Victoria Avenue, whose advertisement for odd carpenter jobs carried in the White Rock Sun resulted in his being requested to pay a licence fee of $30 annually.

Mr. Gillespie protested the fee in a letter to council in which he states the fee classifies him as a carpenter, or contractor and he claims he is neither. He feels council is making an error.

The writer claims he is a casual laborer doing odd jobs. He points out he is active in the Old Age Pensioners' Association and though over 70 enjoys good health. With his taxes on his home increasing by 100% Mr. Gillespie finds it is necessary to earn money at odd jobs and in this way he feels he is aiding the aged of the community.

His ad in the local paper resulted in a check by building and licence inspector Archie Everall who found Mr. Gillespie was operating a trade without a licence, and requested him to pay the $15 bi-annual licence. Ald Max Zack backed Gillespie stating, "Do we have to take our pound of flesh from everybody?"

Ald Zack maintained that council should use certain amount of discretion and should take into consideration the kind of people who are doing the odd jobs.

"We have all kinds of people within the city who do odd jobs who do not have a licence such as baby sitters and school boys doing lawns. Are they to be licenced also?" he asked.

Both Ald Jessie Lee and Ald Mitchell agreed that actually there was no difference between doing housework or baby sitting as compared to odd carpenter jobs.

The entire council agreed that licence inspector Archie Everall is doing a splendid job and it is his duty to issue licences to all trades people, but on the other hand, it is up to Council to determine who are operating a trade and who are not.

Ald Sid Fennell pointed out that while council may allow men to do odd jobs without obtaining a licence, these very individuals are taking jobs from men who are required by council to obtain a licence before they can operate.

Discussion led to the point where members were emphasizing the difference between being officious and efficient. They all agreed they desired efficiency on the part of every officer at the City Hall including the licensing department, but some felt there was a tendency to become "officious."

Ald Jack Hynds took this view in stating, "We are going to make this gentleman buy a licence when we know within our hearts that the same thing is being done every day. Some are going to get away with it and the others are going to pay."

"This gentleman has advertised his wares. I agree with the building inspector, but here we are in a true sense discriminating against one man when we know it is going on in dozens of cases within the city. Why should we penalize this particular man?"

"I agree with the fact that he advertised, but it is discriminatory when we know full well that there are many other people doing it."

City Clerk John L. Jones took exception to Mr. Hynds remarks regarding discrimination and stated such an accusation was unfair.

Hynds made it clear he did not mean that the building inspector was showing discrimination, but that council in its stipulations was doing so.

Mr. Jones stated, "Mr. Gillespie is being treated in the same manner as the others in the city who advertise their trade. It may be that you know of people within the city carrying on a business without a licence, but if Mr. Everall does not know how can he ask them to purchase a licence. He should be told of them and he would follow it up."

Mr. Hynds retorted "But is this council going to deny the right of any man or woman to earn a dollar without taking out a licence?"

Mr. Jones replied, "It is a matter for council to make its wishes known for Mr. Everall to follow. He is appointed by council."

Ald Sid Fennell on the other hand said he felt council was discriminating against the man who had taken out a licence if they refused to demand a licence of Mr. Gillespie.

Ald Alex Mitchell interjected, "What is our policy going to be toward these people. Mr. Gillespie has brought it to a head by complaining against the licence. Should we change the bylaw?"

Mr. Jones pointed out that changing the bylaw for each case would be a never-ending procedure.

Ald Max Zack argued that pensioners work for far less wages than the ordinary tradesman and augment their small pensions by doing odd jobs. He argued that they could not be classed as tradesmen.

Mayor William Hodgson pointed out that to allow men to carry on carpentry work without taking out a licence or a permit encouraged possible careless carpentry work and construction of which Everall has no awareness and consequently can't be on hand to inspect.

Ald Sid Fennell moved endorsement of Mr. Everall's recommendation that Mr. Gillespie pay the $30 annual licence fee. Ald Max Zack seconded the motion.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Nyen, 1369 Winter Street, are holidaying at Harrison Hot Springs.

Mrs. Angus McMary of Camrose, Alberta is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray of Merklin St.

Ottawa doesn't know White Rock

Federal officials in Ottawa evidently don't know where White Rock is situated.

The Sun has received so many requests for information on the tides in this area we sent to the Department of Mines and Technical Surveys for a tide book.

The Department sent us a book but the tides were for Barkley Sound and Dixon Entrance, B.C. Under the headings were listed such places as Port Alberni, Clayoquot, Bella Bella and Prince Rupert.

We'll write to Ottawa again and inform them just where White Rock is located.

CNIB thank Lions for Camp support

The members of the three groups of the CNIB who have spent the last three weeks at The Memorial Camp under the splendid leadership of Mrs. G. Wright, supervisor, wish to extend to the members of the White Rock Lions Club for their very grateful thanks for their kindness and hospitality.

The club supplied transportation every Sunday to take the members of the CNIB to the various churches and every Wednesday provided entertainment in the form of a wiener roast, complete with hot dogs, buns and excellent coffee which the guests certainly enjoyed.

Both the ladies and the men did so much to add to the enjoyment of the camp guests.

Senior Citizens plan annual picnic

Details for the annual picnic of the White Rock Branch of the Senior Citizens' Association have been ably worked out by the president, Mr. V. W. Plant.

The picnic is slated for July 29 at the Duck Pond at Stanley Park and two chartered buses have been engaged to provide transportation.

Route to be followed by the bds is as follows: No. 1 bus will come down the King George Highway to the Crescent Road and turn west to Crescent Beach Post Office at approximately 9:20 a.m.

From there it will head along Stevenson Road to Marine Drive and then east to the King George Highway, continuing east to Stayle Road, north to North Bluff and east to Johnston and north to the King George Highway.

The No. 2 bus will head west on the Crescent Road from the highway to Nichol Road, then south to North Bluff Road, east to Johnston, south to Buena Vista to Washington and the Great Northern Station.

The bus will then turn east on Washington to Maple, north to Columbia, west to E Street to Pacific Avenue and on west to Johnston Road, where the two buses will meet to even up their passenger loads at North Bluff and Johnston.

The No. 1 bus will leave Crescent Beach at 9:30 a.m. Both will leave the Great Northern Depot at 10 a.m. They will leave the duck pond in Stanley Park on their return journey at 7:00 p.m.

For tickets phone Mr. Frost WI. 8-8371. Members 50c, guests $1.50. Sales close July 27.

Next meeting of the Branch will be held in the Anglican Church Hall on July 21st.

A. H. Fraser, formerly of Winnipeg, who has been named to the new post of assistant general manager of the CPR's Pacific region, with headquarters at Vancouver.

Cash lacking for dust suppression

White Rock residents will have to grin and bear it as far as dusty roads are concerned this year. There just isn't anything in the budget to cover the cost of dust suppression.

Complaints reaching the Mayor and Council are legitimate, members feel, and they would very much like to find the estimated $3,500 to purchase the M.C.O. required to take care of the dust but it has not been provided for in this year's budget. It is estimated 2,500 gallons would be required for each mile to be treated.

On the other hand, City Council has furnished work's program, second to none in the history of White Rock, at a cost of more than $80,000 and is providing residents with a paving program unequalled throughout the lower mainland. With this extensive paving program members feel that motorists can get to any part of the city using paved roads and can avoid the unpaved streets to a large extent.

Burnaby location for new FVMPA plant

The Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association has purchased approximately 25 acres of land in Burnaby Municipality for a location of a new Dairyland Head office building, it is announced today by President D. R. Nicholson.

The site is on the south-east corner of Sperling and Loughheed Highway. Part of the property is presently occupied by the Odeon Paramount Drive-In Theatre which will continue to operate until the end of the season.

FVMPA officials are presently studying plans for the erection of a modern plant facility, but no date for commencement of construction has been decided as yet.

Being alone without feeling alone is one of the great experiences of life; and he who practices it has acquired an infinitely valuable possession.

The top 64 men and 32 ladies of B.C. will participate in three-game matches until they lose a match and are knocked out.

FVMPA picnic slated for August 6

The Annual Picnic and Open House of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association will be held on Thursday, August 6.

This year the farmer members of the dairy co-operative will gather with their families and friends at the Pacific Milk Plant near Abbotsford in the morning for a tour of the big milk evaporator. In the afternoon the expected 5,000 people will get together for a picnic and program in Cultus Lake Park.

Regional Library receives grant

The Fraser Valley Regional Library has just received a grant of $7,950 from the Public Library Commission.

The Commission, appointed to act on behalf of the Minister of Education for B.C., is responsible for the administration of the Public Libraries Act and for the promotion, by counsel and encouragement, of the establishment and extension of public library service throughout the province.

Out of its annual appropriation from the Legislature, for assistance to public libraries, the Commission has made the current grant in recognition of the valuable public service being performed by the Fraser Valley Regional Library.

The money will be used to help in meeting the ever-increasing demand for books throughout the whole of the Regional Library District.

In The Garden

By G. E. Sery

APHIS ON BEANS

That black aphid is pretty bad on broad beans this year in this locality. Usually it is quite easy to control by just pinching out the young succulent tips, which they seem to love, and, if they are present, they will move on to other plants, such as laburnums.

But this year they are very persistent, and many gardeners are complaining about their presence. I not only pinched the tips of mine when they were about 40 inches high, but I sprayed them lightly twice, but still the aphid increased rapidly, not only on the tops of the plants but on the lower parts, leaves and young pods. I have since given them a rough good soak with Blade leaf 40, and it seems to have eliminated them. Whether others will come in from elsewhere remains to be seen.

So if you too are troubled in the same way, give them a thorough soaking with a nicotine spray, 3 teaspoonsful to a gallon of water, using some soap-suds, (not detergent) to make the spray adhere to the plants.

WINTER GREENS

It is time you should plant out winter greens, such as late cabbages, savoy, Brussels sprouts, curly kale, autumn giant cauliflowers, and broccoli. I told you a little while ago how to grow them from seed, and they should be about ready to plant out now.

Avoid planting any of this family on the same ground you had them last year, or you may be asking for trouble. A good place to plant them is between the rows of early potatoes; here they will be partly shaded by the potato foliage. You'll be digging the potatoes soon, and this will leave more room and light for the greens. If you have to plant them in open ground, you will have to shade them for a few days with a shingle stuck in the ground on the south side. Do not loosen the ground too much, as most of them do better on firm ground. A little loosening 2 or 3 inches deep with a hoe is sufficient. Of course I depend on the texture of your soil; on heavy land a deeper loosening may be necessary. Deep cultivation before planting encourages loose, lanky growth. A little addition of bone meal before hoeing is a good thing, unless the ground was well manured in early spring; in this case bone meal is unnecessary. Don't use chemical fertilizers.

Where cauliflowers thrive best in richer soil, their cousins, the broccoli (the cauliflower type) do best on poor ground. These broccoli can be nodd to mature nice cauliflower heads in early winter, using the Nov. Dev. variety, and the St. Valentine, which head out in the spring, provided we don't get a severe winter.

IN THE FLOWER GARDEN

This is the time when gardens put on a dazzling display of color and growth. It is also a time when gardeners must keep busy to see that flowers, shrubs do their very best.

A little time out every day should be taken cutting off all dead flowers, thereby encouraging further blooming and growth. When the peak of first bloom has passed, prune your roses lightly. Continue dusting for control of aphid, mildew, black spot and other rose pests. For easy, effective control use an all-round dust in the handy cartridge refillable dust gun. As the weather becomes warmer, keep soil around roses moist and cultivated.

Sweet peas must be kept picked regularly, or they are liable to peter out. Be sure their supports are keeping them from flopping and breaking.

Go through your tall-growing plants, particularly delphiniums, to see they are firmly tied to their stakes.

As the peonies finish flowering, cut off the dead blooms, and when cutting these, at least two or more of the lower leaves should be left. It is a mistake to cut back peony foliage too severely, for like, asparagus, they need their foliage over summer in order to build up strength for next year's blooms. Also, the foliage of peony plants is part of their

To keep peony plants growing luxuriously year after year, they should be fed and have light applications of wood ashes worked into the soil.

In the spring to produce flowers, and immediately after blooming to produce root growth, feed the plants either one pound of raw bone meal or mix it with pulverized sheep manure.

Cultivate peony plants frequently during spring and summer. The soil should not be pulled up about the plants. Do not cultivate after midsummer.

Summer mulching of peonies is beneficial, especially in dry seasons or if the plants are grown on light soils. Dry moss or grass clippings can be used as a mulch.

Shrubs which have finished flowering should be pruned immediately. Take out old canes and remove the spent flower stalks, giving them a chance to grow new wood for next year's flowering.

Keep hedges trimmed and shaped. Small-leaved hedges should be clipped with shears, and the sides should be trimmed so that there is a slight slope upwards, leaving the hedge wider at the bottom than at the top. This will prevent the lower portions from becoming bare of foliage.

Large-leaved subjects, such as laurel, must on no account be cut with the shears, for this would necessitate cutting the leaves in half and so disfiguring the hedge. Use hand secateurs for the job; it takes longer, but makes a good job.

Organize junior skin diving club

Thirteen would-be skin divers have already enrolled in the Junior Skin Diving Club being organized in White Rock.

Instruction for the junior members is slated to commence shortly. Members are asked to watch the window of the Sport Shop on Washington Avenue where starting dates will be posted, as well as being announced in the press. Registration can be made at the Sport Shop any day. Fee is $1, including instruction.

There are now 45 members in the Senior Club. Reports indicate some very splendid divers are being realized through Club instruction under the fine direction of Len Van Edmond of Vancouver who gives instruction on scuba diving to those in the advanced group.

Two wickets give Surrey team win over Vancouver cricketers

In a low scoring match at Bear Creek Park on Saturday, July 11, Surrey Cricket Club defeated the Vancouver Juniors by two wickets.

The visiting team batted first, and were all out for 39 runs. Buchanan (20) being the only batsman to reach double figures against a strong Surrey attack, led by Robin Johnston, who took eight wickets for five runs.

Surrey replied with 41 for eight wickets down. Robin Johnston (13) and Doug Ramsden (11) not out. This was the second time this season that Doug Ramsden has hit the winning run for Surrey.

Buchanan was the best bowler for the Juniors, taking seven of the eight wickets that fell, for 17 runs.

The fielding of the Juniors, spearheaded by Ron Rodgers, was on a very high level and was largely responsible for keeping Surrey down.

The next league game will be played at Bear Creek Park on Saturday, July 18 at 2 p.m.

Needler - Johnson

Roses feature of pretty double-ring ceremony

Roses were the keynote of a pretty summer wedding which took place on Saturday, July 11 at 2 p.m. at the Anglican Holy Trinity Church at Roper and Foster, White Rock, when Margaret Lesley Johnson became the bride of George Treglown Needler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cairns Johnson of Crescent Beach and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Needler of Nanaimo. The Rev. Pitt Griffiths officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was followed by a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Shimmering white nylon chiffon over bridal white satin created the bride's floor-length bouffant gown, and a delicately flowered head-cap held her illusion chapel veil. The bridal bouquet was bright red roses with stephanotis.

She was attended by Miss Darlene Sands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Sands, Crescent Beach, B.C., dressed in a lovely yellow gown of nylon sheer with white accessories. Yellow roses with stephanotis completed a delightful ensemble.

Two little flower girls dressed in dainty periwinkle blue rose-sprigged dresses and carrying baby pink rosebud nosegays also attended the bride.

No fire loss in city during June

Fire loss in White Rock during the month of June was nil, but the value risk involved of the four fires attended amounted to $12,000. Fire Chief C. W. Pollard pointed out in his monthly report.

Pollard reported his department answered two residential and two bush and grass fires and three orders were issued in compliance with the Provincial Fire Marshal's Act.

Nine fire protection and fire prevention inspections were made; 63 burning permits issued; nine oil and gas permits issued and one inhalator call answered.
